

ELSECAR
HERITAGE CENTRE

Elsecar Heritage Centre Story

Elsecar Heritage Centre is a heritage site.

This means it is a place where I can enjoy the atmosphere and learn more about the story of Elsecar's industrial heritage.

I can also visit the cafes and shops, and an indoor play area.

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

Outside the Visitor Centre I might see:

Heritage buildings

Newcomen Beam Engine

Craft and gift shops

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

Inside the Visitor Centre I might see:

Museum staff/volunteers at the reception desk

Films

Comfortable seating

Items in the shop for sale

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

Inside the Visitor Centre I might see:

Information boards on Elsecar's history

Old objects

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

I might hear:

Visitors

People talking about Elsecar's past

Replica works bell

Films

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

I might touch or feel:

Dressing up costumes

Iron on the Ironworks

Buildings

Model of the buildings at Elsecar

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

I might touch or feel:

Activity backpacks

Historic photo activity cards

Toys, books and games

Sensory basket of historic objects

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

I might taste:

Food from the cafés

Sweets from the shops

A picnic you might bring with you

Event catering

When I visit Elsecar Heritage Centre

I might smell:

Plants and flowers

Food

Smells from Elsecar's past

Most of all Elsecar Heritage Centre is a place where I can learn about Barnsley's Coal Mining history and enjoy a great day out with my family, friends or whoever is with me.

